

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. Ely reported a bill, entitled, An act supplemental to an act for the establishment and support of public free schools, in the first election district of Baltimore county.

Which was read the first and second time by special order.

On motion by Mr. Turner, said bill was amended by adding at the end thereof the following proviso:—

Provided, that the said school commissioners of the first election district as aforesaid, shall first settle such account as may appear to be justly due to the commissioners of Baltimore county for additional duties imposed on them, and furnishing stationary, transcribing, &c.

The question was then put, "shall the said bill?" Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ely reported a bill, entitled, An act supplemental to an act, entitled, An act to provide for electing commissioners for Baltimore county, and prescribing their powers and duties;

And, Mr. Harper reported a bill, entitled, An act supplemental to an act passed at December session 1832, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, An act to abolish imprisonment for debt on certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace, passed at December (session 1830, chapter 155;

Which were severally read the first, and second time by special order, and passed.

On motion by Mr. Gantt, the house took up for consideration, the bill from the senate, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising the appointing of inspectors and wood corders, and to regulate the cording of fire wood brought by water to the city of Baltimore, and the amendments reported by the committee of said bill. The amendment having been read the second time, was assented to.

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed with the proposed amendment;

The bill reported by Mr. Nicols, entitled, An act to incorporate Cambridge Lodge No. 66 of Free and accepted Masons, in Dorchester county;

And the bill reported by Mr. Harris, entitled, An act supplementary to an act passed December session 1829, chapter 87, entitled, An act to promote the preservation improvement and increase of shell fish in this state;

Were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed: